GRUESOME MUDDLE IN IDENTIFYING VICTIMS

SACK OF CHARRED BONES WAS TAKEN TO MORGUE AND LEFT THERE—BELIEVED TO BE TWO BODIES—A. B. WATT MUCH MORE SERIOUSLY INJURED THAN WAS AT FIRST IMAGINED.

According to further information received from Flint, Mich., which is near the scene of the recent wreck on the G.T.R., the injuries sustained by Mr. A. B. Watt, managing editor of the Daily Capital, who was on one of the ill-fated trains, are more serious than at first reported. Mrs. Watt, widow of the chief of police at Flint for further particulars and the reply contained the information that Mr. Watt was at present in the hospital there, and that he had been badly scalded about the face, arms and hands. It stated further that he would probably have to remain in the hospital for at least ten days. Mr. Watt's brother, who resides in Toronto, is now in Flint and a telegram received from him this morning corroborates the information wired by the chief of police. Mrs. Watt left this morning for Flint via the G. T. P. It is quite likely that as soon as Mr. Watt is able to be moved that he will be taken to Toronto for treatment.

Durand, Mich., Aug. 27.—J. I. Jeffers, tonight almost positively identified his wife, the body that was yesterday identified as Mrs. Squires of Chicago, and the dead victims of Wednesday night's wreck are now quite definitely fixed as numbering eight. The sack of bones overlooked by the undertaker is believed to contain the body of Mrs. Squires. To add to the difficulty of identification of the charred bones of the victims, the bones are said to represent two additional bodies. They were found in the morgue tonight in a sack that had been overlooked in yesterday's excitement. This brings the number of dead to eight. Repeated enquiries from relatives of passengers thought to have been on the ill-fated Pullman sleeper Nebraska, led Dr. Fair, surgeon for the G. T. R., to remark to Undertaker Mapes in charge of the dead, that there must have been more bodies in the wreck than were recovered. This recalled to Mapes' mind a sack that some one unknown to him had brought to the morgue yesterday morning. In the confusion the sack was pushed into a corner and forgotten. When it was brought out and its contents examined Fair said that the bones represented probably two additional dead. Among the persons for whom enquiries are being made are Miss Belle Scott, school teacher from Chicago, who was en route for Toronto, the daughter of Geo. Jagaman of Chicago, and Mrs. H. I. Jeffers of Washington, a purse bearing whose name was found today pinned to the clothing taken from one of the bodies. Some question arose today as to whether one of the six bodies found yesterday is Mrs. Jeffers or Mrs. Lewis Squire of Chicago.

STATE BOARD WILL PROBE THE WRECK

To Make a Searching Inquiry Into Circumstance of the Durand Wreck

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 27.—The state railroad commission announces that it will conduct an investigation of the Durand wreck at Durand, and will act independently of the Shiohwa County authorities. Chairman Glasgow of the commission states that Attorney General Kuhn will act for the people. The commission, he adds, is determined to find out where lies the blame for the accident and will take up the investigation at once.

METHODISTS IN FAVOR OF UNION

Conference Passes Motion Favoring Church Union by a Very Large Majority

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 26.—The debate on church union was resumed this morning by the Rev. Dr. Kaulfle. Moves Amendment

This afternoon an amendment was brought in by the Rev. A. M. Sandford, of Vancouver. Instead of expressing approval of the basis of union, he wanted to use the term "cordially receive" and then sent it to the quarterly board for consideration. The vote being taken, the amendment was lost by a large majority. On the motion, the vote stood 220 for and 35 against. Among those voting against were Drs. Griffin, Briggs, Patton, Hinks and Curtis and the Revs. Bond, Milliken and Sanford, and also Messrs. H. F. Moore, Justice McLaren, Irvin, Hillyard and C. H. Fortner, among the laymen. More ministers than laymen voted in the minority.

Bishop Honda and Dr. Dubois spoke farewell words this afternoon. The following were elected members of the general mission board: Ministers, Dr. Sherry, Dr. Hearty, Dr. Young, Dr. Briggs, Dr. Ryckman and Principal Sparling; laymen, N. W. Rowell, W. H. Cushing, J. W. Flay, Justice McLaren, C. K. Keenley and W. H. Lamby.

VANCOUVER WANTS AUTOMATIC PHONES

City Council Passed a Resolution Last Night Condemning the Present System

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 27.—An agitation for a better telephone system than Vancouver today enjoys reached the resolution stage with the civic fathers tonight. The members of the finance committee of the city council were practically unanimous in passing the resolution which read:

"In the opinion of this committee the present telephone system is a failure. We recommend that the B. C. Telephone Company be given 30 days to decide upon the adoption of the automatic system. In the event of its failure to do so the city will take steps to allow a competing system. Mayor Taylor favored the establishment of a municipal system in the event of a competing system. The resolution will come before the whole council on Monday night.

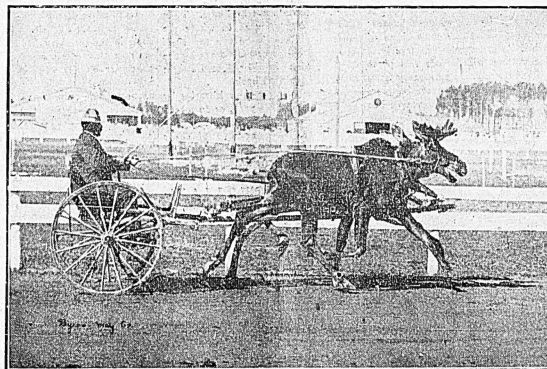

SIX ARRIVALS; SIX COUNTRIES

Six arrivals on the G. T. P. evening train registered at the immigration hall and no two claimed the same country as birthplace. From Prussia, Germany, Sweden, England, the United States and Eastern Canada, all drawn by the fame of Edmonton's midwest farming lands.

AMERICANS GETTING VERY CANADIANIZED

Nova Scotia Man says So. Anyways—Hon. W. S. Fielding Coming Home

(Canadian Associated Press.)
London, Aug. 27.—Hon. W. S. Fielding, Canadian Minister of Finance, sails for Canada on Thursday next. Colonel Lessard of Ottawa will attend the luncheon maneuvers at the guest of the army council. A. S. Barnard of Nova Scotia states that Canada is not becoming Americanized, but that the Americans are becoming Canadianized.

ECKSTORM THROWS OUT 3 LETHBRIDGE GAMES

KILLS ALL GAMES PLAYED LAST WEDNESDAY AND ALSO DOES A LOT OF TALKING ABOUT THINGS THAT HE MAY HAVE TO TAKE BACK—CALLS SERIES A "DIRTY FRAME UP."

(Special to The Capital.)
Calgary, Aug. 27.—"It was a dirty piece of work and I would not stand for it, so took the only course open to me and threw out all three games of the Edmonton-Lethbridge series which were played in the Western Canada League this morning. Eckstorm is apparently very much disgusted and expresses himself very freely. "We don't know what to think or say here in Lethbridge," he continued. "It is not a matter that can be passed over with a mere apology. The fair-minded sports and the people generally here are disgusted at the part our own team took in the matter. We look upon the whole thing as a dirty frame-up and the people will not stand for a dirty deal like that. The men who engineered it are open to the severest censure and are subject to a heavy fine and perhaps something worse. They have made themselves a stench in the nostrils of a community that likes decent sport and I cannot condemn their action too harshly. The games are thrown out and will not count in the standings."

BAD, BAD NEWS
Lethbridge, Aug. 27.—President Eckstorm of the Western Canada League has ruffed out all of the games played between Edmonton and Lethbridge last Wednesday. *****

JUST ECKSTORM
A death blow was aimed at baseball in Edmonton when Eckstorm (who purposely omits the Mr.) decided that two of the three Lethbridge-Edmonton games should be thrown out of the standings. Our only amazement is that this "fair-minded" official did not award them to Lethbridge. It would have been a par with his every decision since he has been in the president's chair. We doubt if United States and Canada were traversed with a fine comb, that a more hopeless apology for a league president could be discovered. He is a stout, bumptious personage, puffed up with the sense of his own importance, and knowing nothing of baseball except that it is a game that is played in summer, but his last faux-pas is a finisher. The big question is: If Lethbridge had won the three games, what would Eckstorm have done. Probably, these questions, along with the mysterious Zimmerman contract will go down into Western Canada League annals as unsolved. Manager Deacon White has notified Secretary Farrell of the National Commission regarding the decision and in the meantime will continue the series in Calgary. The Calgary Herald stated that the Huskies were afraid to come here as threats had been made against them. Let Eckstorm pay a visit to Edmonton. There are a number of citizens of this city who would like to give him at close range.

KOREA NO LONGER IS INDEPENDENT

Mutsuh Il, Emperor of Japan, Is Now Emperor of Korea, Also

Seoul, Aug. 27.—Korean sovereignty has ceased and Mutsuh Il, Emperor of Japan, will become absolute ruler of Korea next Monday, when the agreement between Emperor Yi Syok of Korea and Mutsuh Il, which was signed August 22nd, will be officially promulgated.

WHISKEY INCO

Was Travelling Under the Name of Vermicelli, Along With Opium and Tobacco Roseland, B. C., Aug. 27.—Customs officials here have made a seizure of large quantities of opium, Chinese tobacco and Chinese whiskey, consigned to a Chinese firm as vermicelli. Members of the firm have been arrested and released on $5,000 bail each.

BIG TURNOVER OF REAL ESTATE

The largest suburban real estate deal in the history of the city has been consummated in the purchase from John A. McDougall, by the McGrath-Hart Company, of river lots 32 and 33, adjoining Bellevue, at a cost of $150,000. The property, consisting of 278 acres, is situated in a most advantageous spot, and a splendid view of the city can be obtained from there. It is the purpose of the purchasers to turn it into a residential district, and plans have already been prepared in connection with the subdivision of the property. Negotiations for the purchase were in progress for some time before a deal was made.

LABOR IS SCARCE IN DER VATERLAND

Everybody Is Working in the Cities and Farm Labor Must Be Imported

Berlin, Aug. 27.—The remarkable prosperity of Germany is once more revealed by the embarrassing scarcity of labor in all the agricultural districts of the country. The different trades and occupations of Germany are giving so much employment that there is a serious dearth of workers in the rural districts, and many hundreds of farmers will be unable to reap their harvest without the aid of foreign laborers imported for this purpose from other countries.

German agents are now busily engaged recruiting such laborers, principally in the Eastern Provinces of Austria, primarily Galicia, and large numbers of foreign workers, who are for the most part Poles, are already crossing the frontier to act as temporary farm hands in all parts of Germany.

It is estimated that fully a quarter of a million foreign laborers will be required to reap Germany's harvest, and after the work of the summer has been done they will return to their homes in adjacent countries. In crossing the German frontiers temporary immigrants are subjected to a severe sanitary inspection in order to prevent the introduction of cholera or other diseases, and the police keep them under supervision in their respective districts, as to a large extent there are many lawless elements among them.

CRIPPEN GOING INSANE?

Liverpool, Aug. 27.—Amid the bustle and haste attending the arrival of the Q.O.R. on the Magnificent today, Dr. Crippen and Ethel Le Neve were quickly escorted off the steamer and safely placed in a compartment on a special train for London. Crippen was well muffled up and Le Neve had a heavy blue veil stretched around her head. It is said that Crippen is going insane.

CHOLERA STILL RAMPANT

Bari, Italy, Aug. 27.—Fourteen deaths from cholera and 20 new cases of the disease during the past 24 hours were reported today.

SUNSHINE FOR THE LAST DAY

Everything In Fine Shape for a Big Wind-up of the Fair

MAY TOTAL OVER $50,000

Expected That By Tonight the Attendance Will Reach that Figure

RACES THIS AFTERNOON

And Also the Big Athletic Meet—Stock Being Shipped Back Home

35,000 SO FAR

The total attendance for the last three days at the Edmonton Exhibition was 35,000. Yesterday's paid admissions amounted to nearly eight thousand and ten thousand visited the fair.

The deposit slip lodged with the Merchants Bank on the grounds last night by the manager of the fair amounted to $4,000.

The street railway carried 21,371 passengers while the railway companies totalled four thousand.

It is expected that this afternoon's attendance will bring up the total to 50,000.

Yet another fine hot day has dawned for the last day of the exhibition and a large crowd is expected at the grounds to witness the double attractions which are being put on, the racing beginning with the great "Free for All" trot or pace; and the big athletic meet with the five mile road race beginning at the Y. M. C. A. and ending in front of the grand stand. The hands will all be in attendance and the attractions will be again put on; on the platform in front of the grand stand.

The race track is in excellent shape for this afternoon's racing in spite of the heavy rain which fell last night and the Free for All, the biggest race of the whole programme will be a keenly contested one; some of the best horses in the west being entered for it.

SCHOOL OPENS NEXT MONDAY

Summer Holidays Are Already Over for the Kiddies, and Work Starts

CHANGES IN THE STAFF

School Board Announces a Number of Changes in the Teaching Staff

School starts Monday!

Geet! Ain't that tough luck? But it's true, nevertheless, and a good many hundreds of good little boys and girls will start off for another ten months of education.

To drop into the office of the school board this morning and see the joyful, brown faces of teachers back from their summering grounds was to be forcibly reminded that the wheels of education will be once more set in motion. To the school boy who has been mired through the woods or dangled his rod by the hour for trout or splashed in the shallow reaches of the river the end of the holidays comes with a sensation like a whack on the back.

The school board announced the following changes in their staff: Mr. F. S. Carr to succeed Mr. Wm. Rea as principal of the high school.

Mr. L. H. Fuller, formerly principal of Alexander Taylor School, succeeds Mr. C. O. Hicks, who leaves to complete his course in science in Toronto University.

Mr. W. H. Pedley has been appointed principal of the Alexander Taylor School.

Miss Vera Moran, Miss Marion Macdonald, Miss Jessie Sutherland, Miss Charlotte M. Thompson, Miss Bessie Hindman, Miss Annie M. Watt appointed grade teachers.

FIERCE FIRES STILL FLAME

It Is Now Believed That Two Hundred Are Burned to Death

ASK FOR USE OF BIG GUNS

Requested That Bombardment of Skies Be Made to Bring Rain

BUT OFFICIALS REFUSE

Many Tales of the Terrible Sufferings of Some of the Stricken Settlers

Spokane, Aug. 27.—Telegraphic communication with the St. Joe Valley of Idaho, was restored today for the first time since the forest fires became serious, but it is as yet impossible to verify the reports of the large loss of life among the fire fighters, additional to the eighty-six reported dead by government officers. The estimates of approximately two hundred dead in the whole fire area is adhered to tonight by those most familiar with the situation from San Francisco, and complete returns have not yet been received from the Coeur d'Alene region in Idaho. When these are included it is thought the list of missing will be materially reduced. The missing include Ranger Hollingshead's crew on Big Creek, 28 men; Ranger Thompson's crew at Indian Lake, 34 men; Belzer Creek guard, 5 men. Ramer Hall's crew of 15 men is reported safe tonight by district Forester Greely.

Navigation Hampered

Port Townsend, Wash., Aug. 27.—Dense clouds of smoke from the burning forest fires of Washington and Oregon overpread the waters of the Pacific from 100 to 300 miles off the coast of both states. Reports state the conditions are particularly difficult for navigation. Word was brought yesterday by the steamship Queen, which is from San Francisco, Captain Barry said that the vessel was never free from the pall of smoke on the run. In shipping on every part of Puget Sound is hampered by the dense smoke.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Estimating the cost of the experiment at about $100,000, the war department officials today declined requests to order a bombardment of the skies by all its guns. Puget Sound and at the mouth of the Columbia river, in an effort to bring on rain in the burning forest district.

In addition to the objection of cost, the army officials regarded the experiment as certain to prove futile.

MAKE INSPECTION OF ALL THEATRES

City Commissioners Get Building Inspector, M. H. O. and Chief of Police on the Job

The city commissioners held a meeting this morning for the discussion of routine business. It was decided that the building inspector, the health officer, and the chief of police make an inspection of the local theatres and make a report, as to their condition.

A discussion of the accounting system in the city engineer's office arose as the result of a communication received from the audit department in connection with a request of the latter department for co-operation in the reconciliation of the special assessment and the general ledgers. Commissioner Houston will make an investigation into the system as employed by the city engineer's department. F. D. Byers wrote on behalf of G. J. Senior in connection with defects in the septic tank. The matter was referred to the city engineer. The recommendation of the board of health that Dr. Whitlaw be given leave of absence to attend the convention of the American Health Association was referred to the council. An order for a trolley wire was placed with the Eugene Phillips Company, of Montreal.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT

The Vengeance of Eternal Fires.

By Charles T. Russell.

Lynn, Mass., August 22.—Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle spoke here twice to-day to large and attentive audiences. We report one of his discourses from the above. He said in part:

My text is one of the strongest of those which once we erroneously misunderstood to teach the eternal torment of the non-elect. Coming to the text with our minds filled with the wrong impressions respecting the character of the Almighty Creator and respecting his purposes toward humanity it is easy for us to misunderstand the words of St. Jude. So deeply were the erroneous thoughts impressed upon our minds from childhood that, irrational though they were, we considered them fundamental theology. In like manner we were misled to our own confusion and injury many Scriptures, reading into them what they do not say and ignoring what they do say. As for instance, the messages of Holy Writ to the effect that "all the wicked will be destroyed"; that "the wages of sin is death"; that "the soul that sinneth, it shall die"; that there is no eternal life out of Christ. All these and others we warped and twisted away from their beautiful and simple teaching, and made out of them "doctrines of devils" with which we harmed ourselves and those committed to our instruction.

We thank God that gradually the eyes of our understanding are opening to discern the great Truth that the testing of the Church in the present Age and the testing of the world at large in the coming Age will be as to worthiness for eternal life or worthiness of eternal death—everlasting destruction—the Second Death from which there will be no redemption, no resurrection, no recovery. As St. Peter declares, "These who enter into it will be, like brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, annihilated."

Sodom and surrounding cities were prodigal and licentious to the extreme and Divine Justice decreed that their course must not continue, but that they should be made an example of a lesson to others of the Divine displeasure against all such licentiousness. Accordingly we read that fire and brimstone were rained from heaven to their utter destruction of these cities, the place of which is now marked by the Dead Sea. The Sodomites were obliterated and only their names and history have come down to us. Their utter destruction by eternal fire or heavenly fire rained upon them were a complete destruction. Their experience pictures forth the utter destruction of all whom God will finally reject as unworthy of eternal life. Not that fire or brimstone would be rained upon all, but that utter destruction will come upon all disapproved by the Almighty. Who thinks that St. Jude meant that the fire that destroyed the Sodomites was an eternal one?

He thinks that it is still burning as a literal blaze should take place at the picture of the Dead Sea and note that there are no fires there. The thought is that the fire, which is a symbol of destruction, did its work thoroughly, completely, leaving not a vestige of these condemned to destruction.

The Sodomites all went to hell—to the Bible hell—to the state of death. But they did not go to the hell which was manufactured by our forefathers during the dark ages—a hell of eternal torture. We have Bible testimony on the subject, which we will produce. They are unconscious now like the remainder of the dead, waiting for the resurrection. And the resurrection opportunity will come to them, as well as to all the remainder of Adam's race, because they, as well as all others, are redeemed by the precious blood of Christ—by the sacrifice which he finished at Calvary. This is not speculative. We have the words of the Master himself on the subject. Let us take our information, our wisdom from the proper quarter. Then our doubts and fears will speedily fade away.

We will produce the Bible testimony showing that the Sodomites will be released and come forth during the mediatorial reign of Messiah to enjoy a share of the blessings then to be poured out upon Israel and the world; and to have an opportunity of coming into harmony with God and gaining eternal life. But we know that straightaway somebody will say, No, Pastor Russell, that would be a second chance, and God has nowhere promised a second chance to any. Furthermore it would be belittling to the Divine Government to suppose that God, after giving one fair trial to a man and reaching a decision would conclude to give him another trial, as though Divine Justice were unable to determine the worthiness or unworthiness of the individual for eternal life in one trial or testing.

We fully agree with this sentiment, but call attention to the fact that the Sodomites did not enjoy one trial for life. They and all mankind were "born in sin, shapen in iniquity; in sin did their mothers conceive them." "Dying thou shalt die." Neither they nor anyone else, therefore, could be placed upon trial for a future life everlasting or death everlasting, until released from the original sin and who reject his message. This Gospel Age which began with our Lord's sufferings and trying experiences, and which has continued these experiences with his followers, has for its object the preparation, the qualification, of those who will be the judges of the world in the coming Age. They must all be developed in the fruits and graces of the Holy Spirit—"meekness, patience, brotherly kindness, love," else that will not be fit to be the judges of mankind by and by. It is required that all be come copies of the Redeemer, God's dear Son. St. Paul tells us this, saying, "Know ye not that the saint shall judge the world?" and that God has foreordained that all of these judges must be copies of his Son (Romans viii, 29; 1. Corinthians vi, 2).

Come back with me to the Old Testament Scriptures and note how the Divine Spirit dictated the letter of one of the prophets and caused it to be written for our instruction. Alas! as Jesus said, we have been "slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken" (Luke xiv, 29). Through Ezekiel the Prophet, the Lord explains that when the restitution time shall come at the Second Advent of our Lord in the glory of his Kingdom, then the Divine blessing will come upon Israel now cast off. Nor will the blessing of Messiah's Kingdom come upon Israel only! It will extend to all the families of the earth. Through the Prophet the Lord specially emphasized to Israel her two sister nations, Sodom and Samaria. The Lord pointed out that in the day of their pride and prosperity they despised these sister nations as being far beneath them and unworthy of their notice in every way. But in the restitution times (Acts iii, 19) they will be glad to have a share of the Divine favor in conjunction with those nations formerly despised.

The Lord declares that it is not because of the worthiness of any of these that he proposes their restitution, but because of his glorious character, for which his namesake. Let me quote to you this remarkably clear statement of the Divine purposes future; and let us notice that it is emphatically declared that the one to be restored and blessed are the very ones who perished in the days of Lot. We quote:

"Sodom thy sister in law, not done as thou hast done. Behold this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was to her, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and the needy. And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me; therefore I took them away as I saw good. [God did not see good to take them to a hell of eternal torture; but he did see good to destroy them and to make them an example of the destruction of all un-

Again the Fatal First

(Special to the Capital)

Calgary, Aug. 27.—Calgary took the second game from Edmonton last night by a score of 7 to 4 after a hard fought battle in which they more than once looked like winning.

It was a pitcher's battle after the first with Manning and Hickey delivering the goods.

Ferdie Manning took the pill and walked three strikes across on Babe Mills before Little Rube knew what was what. Moose Baxter came up after Rube, but rolled when he sent a nice grounder to Paddock at short, which Paddy promptly relayed to first. Then came Pete Morse, who also gassed space three times and retired. This was the first innings of the Eskimos. Three men out without even a hit.

The Way It Was Done

In our first was Del Paddock who sauntered out to try Slim Dell's fancy curves. The curves were so fancy that Paddock walked and he was followed to the plate by Bill Carney, who viciously swiped at one of Dell's offerings with the result that it curved right up into the air. The Edmonton fans yelled approval of this hit, but when Rube Mills vainly strove to check its flight with one mitt when it was coming towards him and the ball trickled off the edge of the glove, it was the Calgary rooters who took up the refrain. Then came Clynas and walked, filling the bases. Wally Smith loved Clynas, and as soon as two balls had been heaved across by Dell, the Deacon recalled him and sent Jack Hickey in to pitch. Not a run had been scored when Hickey blew into the game, but a minute later Smith landed on the pill and it landed around Babe Mills, in the left garden and Paddock and Carney came home. Pat Flanagan followed Smith and then Clynas came home when Flanagan landed on a regular Texa's Leaguer between second and centre. Hickey Kellaway came up and sent a long fly to the right garden, allowing Smith to score on the throw in. Matt Stanley was next up and he flew to Baxter in the left garden and was followed by Chuck Connors, who sent an easy grounder to Rosy Walters at second and was caught at first. This retired the Carneyites, but not before they had scored four runs.

In the second the Eds began to score. Lussi made second on the grounder he lined out towards the pitcher, but Wally's heart and made its way towards Babe Clynas, just as Wally was all ready to grab it. Chesty Cox came up and died at first when he lined a hard drive towards Chuck Connors, but Lussi made third on this play. Then came Spencer with a dinky hit to third which scored Lussi and landed Stub safely on first. The score at the end of this innings was four to one in favor of Calgary.

The third was another blank for the Carneyites, but when the Eskimos came to bat Hickey was first; to the plate. Hickey died easily, and Mills made a safe hit past short for one bag. Moose Baxter walked and Moose struck out, and Lussi came to the plate. Lussi lined out over to Chuck, but for once Chuck fumbled and Mills came across the plate and Lussi made first. Chesty Cox, however, flew too third and the innings was over. Score 4 to 2, for Calgary.

The fourth was also productive of one run for the Eskimos. Spencer made first when Wally Smith felled his grounder and made a wild pitch to first, while Kellaway had to get off the bag to field. Brennan sacrificed Spencer to second, and then came Walters to bat. Rosy was nervous and struck out, but Hickey who followed him touched the ball for a hit to the right garden and when Bill Carney over ran and booted the ball Stub came home. Mills followed Hickey, but died at first. Score 4 to 3 for Calgary.

The fifth resulted in no scores, being made on either side. But in the sixth the Eskimos came across with the run that tied the Calgary score.

Spencer went to first when an easy grounder slipped through Wally Smith's fingers and was sacrificed to Brennan. Then came Rosy Walters with the hit that allowed the tying run. Rosy landed on the pill and sent it right over the second bag to centre before he could be relayed. Spencer was home, and the score was tied. Only one man was out and Walters stole second and third in quick succession. It looked as though the game which Calgary had on ice was slipping slowly but surely away, but Hickey came up and lifted a long fly to centre which was caught up by Pat Flanagan after a long hard run. Then Mills came up and walked. He stole second and with two men out and a man on second and third Moose Baxter came to bat. It looked as if nothing could prevent a score, but Moose was not able to connect properly and was thrown out at first.

From the sixth to the eighth, it was another inactive period. The Eskimos tried hard to get the winning run over but failed. The Carneyites tried very hard, but it was not until the eighth that they finally managed to score again and put the game once.

Paddock led off the eighth by getting to first when Rosy Walters dropped an easy fly. Then came Billy Carney with a nice two bagger which sailed right over the third bag to the left garden. Paddock made third and then second on the hit and the Eskimos argued vainly with the umpire that it was a foul ball.

With a man on second and third, Babe Clynas grabbed the bickery and came to the plate. He took the first good ball that came along, and laid it down in the right garden for a real three bagger, scoring both Carney and Paddock, and the fans went wild. Wally Smith walked up but was over anxious and as a result struck out. Pat Flanagan followed Wally and the first ball that Hickey put over was a very wild pitch which enabled Clynas to score and again the uproar commenced. Flanagan flew to third and Kellaway flew to Nine, retiring the Carneyites.

The Eskimos went in to the ninth feeling desperate, but their suspense was short-lived. Hickey died at first; Mills walked; Baxter was hit by a pitched ball and then Morse came up. Morse drove a straight line drive towards Chuck Connors. The second baseman was there to receive it. He caught the ball on the fly retiring the batter and then running to second base tagged Moose Baxter as he came there, making a double play that ended the game.

Famous Champion Has Been Ordered to Quit Track—Good Chance for Decoteau

Toronto, August 26.—Jack Tait, the pride of Canada, has retired from the ciader path. Jack, who has been racing since he was 16 years of age, up to 15 miles in 1907, and the Canadian mile champion for two years, has been ordered to quit the track exclusively. The physicians are of the opinion that the defect of the hard races has left an engraved in since last fall upon his heart.

Tait has just finished a particularly hard season, during which he met such good Americans as Mel Sheppard, George V. Bonhag, Wilton C. Paul, Abel Kiviat, Harry Gibson, saying nothing of such good Canucks as Arnold Knox, Chuck Skene, and Geo. Lister. Tait's defeat of George V. Bonhag in New York last spring, when Bonhag was at his best, was his best performance. He set a new world's indoor mile and a half record in this race. He also defeated Paul twice, and chased Bonhag to town in the two mile race at Buffalo, where Bonhag set a new world's mark.

Tait was one of the most popular athletes Canada ever had, a boy whose honesty and integrity was always beyond reproach.

(Note.—This removes one of Decoteau's most formidable opponents for the Dominion one mile championship.)

GOOD RACES

Yesterday's Winners.

2:23 Pace, 2:18 Trot—Longboat.
2:23 Pace, 2:18 Trot (and Division)—Dolly Bell.
7/8 Mile Dash—Nellie Racine.
5/8 Mile Dash—Ivanhoe.
6/5 Furlong Dash—Josee S.

Yesterday's races at the Fair were very much drawn out, owing to the stock parade and some judging which took place on the track. The first race was postponed until to-day, and the large number of entries in the 2:23 pace 2:18 trot necessitated it being divided into two series.

In the evening a slight rain and the rapidly falling barometer resulted in the races for Indian ponies being declared off.

Little Mac Suspended.

The meet occurred in the 2:23 pace, 2:18 trot. Little Mac was entered for the race, but before the time to start went to the judges and asked to be allowed to withdraw his horse as it was suffering from a fever. Dr. Pickering, veterinary surgeon for the association examined Little Mac and declared the horse perfectly fit to start. The heat was delayed 30 minutes in starting owing to the tactics of the driver, A. M. Shaw, so the judges placed a $25 fine on him. The owner then tried to get the police to interfere and again an examination was made and Little Mac started in the second heat and the driver put up a poor attempt. Investigation showed that the horse had not been properly looked after between the heats, so taking everything into consideration the judges decided to fine Peever, the owner, $25 and suspend him for the season, while Groff, the trainer, and Driver Shaw are also suspended. The judge clearly showed by their decision that they will not stand for any tricky work.

2:23 Trot Division 1.
Tom Longboat was the real class of this race and won in straight heats. Lumsoma was a good second every time, while Czanta took third money and Helen Norther fourth. The time in the first heat, 2:16 1/2, was the fastest of the race.2:23 Trot, Division 2.
This race resulted five heats to decide, and of the four entries, it had first places to their credit. Earlwood took the first heat, Dolly Bell being second. The second and third heats went to Dolly Bell, Earlwood, and Boundry Boy taking second places. Boundry Boy took the fourth heat, while Dolly Bell won the fifth and the race. The time throughout was slow.7/8 Mile Dash.
Three good horses went to the post in this race, with Nellie Racine ruling an odds-on favorite. Outset gave the favorite a contest throughout, but could not get up and Nellie Racine won by a length. Time, 1:32 1/2.5/8 Mile Dash.
Just at the raising of the barrier, Madden on Miss Raphael was left at the post. The race itself was a gift for the first good horse Ivanhoe. O'Brien took him to the front from the very start and won pulled up by 4 lengths. Time 1:04.6 1/2 Furlong Dash.
Josie S. and Prince Rupert, divided the public support in this race. On the first trip past the stand Buckingham was in the lead, running like a scared cat. But the pace was too much for him, and he fell back on the stretch, Josie S. taking the lead. In a driving finish, Josie S. won from Landoff, with Prince Rupert well beaten off. Time 1:27.

A Matched Race

Yesterday morning a quarter-mile matched race was pulled off at the track between Alice and Candy Kid. Alice won easily.

A Slight Accident

The first accident of the meet occurred in the initial heat of the 2:23 pace, 2:08 trot. Just after the horses rounded the first turn the sulkeys of Helen Norther and Polly collapsed. The latter managed to escape injury

SATAN SANDERSON

"A story which will do you stint before."

Chapter 16

FROM the moment her kiss fell upon the forehead of the delicious man in the cabin Jessica began to be a prey to new emotions, the significance of which she did not comprehend. That kiss, she told herself that night, had been given to her dead ideal that had lain there in its purifying grave clothes of forgetfulness. Yet it burned on her lips, as that other kiss in a darkened room had burned afterward, but with a sense of pleasure, not of hurt. It took her back into crimson meadows with her lost girlhood and its opaled outlook—and Hugh.
But largest of all in her mind next day was anxiety. She must know how he fared. In the open daylight she could not approach the cabin, but she reflected that the doctor had been there and no doubt had carried some report of him to the town. So as the morning grew she rode down the mountain ostensibly to get the cherry cordial she had left behind her the day before, really to satisfy her hunger for news.

As it happened Mrs. Halloran's first greeting set her anxiety at rest. Pres-dargent had bought some tobacco at the general store an hour before while she had been making her daily order, and the storekeeper had questioned him. To an interested audience he had told of the finding of Hugh on the mountain road in a sort of crazy fever and enlarged upon the part the girl on horseback had played. Hugh was all right now, he said, except that he didn't remember him or the cabin or Smoky Mountain.

What Presdargent had said Mrs.
Halloran told Jessica in a breath. Before she finished she found that Jessica had not heard of the incident in the saloon which had precipitated the fight with Devil, and with sympathetic rhetoric Mrs. Halloran told this too.

"Why does Smoky Mountain hate him so? What has he done?" asked Jessica.
"Mrs. Halloran shook her head. "I never knew anything myself," she said judiciously. "I reckon the town allus counted him just a general low down. The rest is only suspicion an' give the dog a bad name."
There had been comfort for Jessica in this interview. Mrs. Halloran's story had materially increased the poignant force of her pity. What had seemed to her vulgar, vulgar brawl had been in reality a courageous and unselfish championship of a defenseless outcast. Thinking of this, the self blame and contrition which she had felt when she listened to the violin assailed her anew, till she seemed a very part of the guilt, an equal sinner by omission.

Yet she rode homeward that day with almost a light heart.

As Harry stood in the cabin door way looking after Presdargent toward the town, glistening far below in the morning sunlight, he thought bitterly of his reception there.
"They all knew me," he thought.
"Every one knew me—on the street, in the hotel. They know me for what I have been to them. Yet to me it is all a blank. What shameful deeds have I done!" He shrank from memory now.
"What was I doing so far away, where was I going, on the night when I was picked up beside the railroad track? I may be a drunkard," he said to himself. "No, in the past month I have drunk hard, but not for the taste of the liquor. I may be a gambler. I may be a cheat, a thief. Yet how is it possible for bad deeds to be blotted out and leave no trace? Actions breed habit if they do not spring from it, and habit automatically repeated becomes character. I feel no inherent propensity to rob or defraud. Shall I? Will these things come back to me if my memory does?"

In the battle that he fought now he turned, even in his weakness, to manual labor, striving to dull his thought with mechanical movement. He cleaned and put to rights both rooms and sorted their litter of odds and ends.
But at times the inclination to escape became well nigh insupportable. When confronted with the past, he would think of a girl's face once seen, and the thought would restrain him. Who was she? Why had her look pierced through him? In that hateful career that seemed so curiously alien could she have had a part?

He did not know that she of whom he wondered in the bitterness of those hours had been very near him; that on her way up the mountain she had stolen down to the Knoll to look through the parted bushes to the cabin with the blue spiral rising from its chimney.

Though the homely task to which he turned failed to allay his struggle by itself, it was a help. The rest is only suspicion. The rest is only suspicion.
The rest is only suspicion. The rest is only suspicion. The rest is only suspicion. The rest is only suspicion. The rest is only suspicion. The rest is only suspicion. The rest is only suspicion.

AT THE THEATRES

CANADIAN CONTINGENT IN THE BOER WAR.

The large crowds of people last night, which attended was a sure proof of the patriotism of Edmonton. Every change of scene was followed with an intense interest. The story centres round the Voorhaut family, and the heroine is the brave girl Nelze who follows her father to the war in the garb of a boy. Through her instrumentality one of the Principal Canadian officers is captured, but, alas for the ways of Fate, before the story closes the tables are turned on the girl, and she is made a captive of love. The film is an historically correct presentation of a wonderful thrilling incident of the Boer War. Everything is real in this sensational subject. The story is true, the troops used are actual veterans, the guns and equipments are service in this war, and the scenic settings are reproductions of actual South African scenes, selected by a participant in the war. Don't fail to see this excellent picture which will be shown to-night for the last time.

AT THE LYCEUM.

Starting Monday at the Lyceum, Sherman's Musical Comedy Company will offer something new and novel in the line of musical comedies. The bill is funny in the full meaning of the word.

It contains a peculiar little plot of the fast and furious nature, and is said to hand more laughs out to the audience than any of the former comedies put on by this company. Speaking briefly, it is a riot.

The music is exhilarating and pleasing, with enough liveliness to make it catchy, and in every way should be the banner show.

About Town

A case of very dishonorable, if not dishonest treatment of an immigrant and his wife came up before the immigration authorities this morning. An Englishman with his wife arrived from Peterboro a few days ago and obtained from an agency a situation for himself and his wife in a hotel in this district at $50 a month. On arriving to take his position the hotelkeeper told him he would pay only $45 and informed him also that his wife would be expected to do washing for the hotel. The man refused the conditions and returned to Edmonton. He is out his time and travelling expenses of which he received nothing. He refuses, however, a receipt and agreement which was defaulted and the chances are that the matter will be taken up by the proper authorities.

were employed cleaning and sweeping the grounds so that they will look their best during the day.

The stock is being shipped back again to their farms. Last night a special stock train left over the C.
P. R. and today there will be another over the lines of the C. N. R. By Sunday night the buildings will be empty and ready again for the show next year.

The band of pipers will be at the fair this afternoon, and will give an exhibition of Scotch reels and Highland flings on the attraction platform between the races, and at 3 p.m. the high jumping competition which was started yesterday afternoon will be continued.

Yesterday there was some little excitement in the horse buildings when Edwin J. Clark was arrested by the exhibition police force for assaulting Mr. Spore. Clark was allowed his liberty after giving bail for $1,000.
The two men had some dispute over a stallion which resulted in Clark being arrested. The case will come up in the city police court early next week. Otherwise there has been a singular absence of any disturbances on the grounds, and the Fire Department has not so far been called into commission.

Yesterday

The cool weather yesterday kept away a large number of people from the Exhibition and the attendance was only eight thousand, twelve thousand less than yesterday. In spite of this fact, however, the day's programme which was a large one, went off very well, and the Association are to be congratulated on another successful day.

In the morning the judges continued their work of judging the horses, and many visitors from the country were at the show early in order to have plenty of time to go through all the houses where the stock is kept.
As usual, there was only standing room on the street cars, although the train service was better patronized than before.

About 1 p.m. the grounds began to get really full, and by 2 o'clock the grand stand presented the same animated appearance that it did the day before. Between the races the attractions under the management of Mr. R. Farquharson were again presented on the platform opposite the grand stand, while the Citizens' Band and the Strathcona City Band were in attendance.

At 4 p.m. the hackneys were judged in front of the grand stand. There were four entries, the winners being:
J. M. Bruce, of Lashburn, Sask., 1st prize; the Devondale Hackney Association, and prize, and J. J. Richards, of Strathcona, 3rd prize. The four competitors were drawn up in a line before the judge, and after each had been inspected, the awards, as above, were made. There was loud applause when the red ribbon was pinned on the winner, Mrs. Bruce was seated beside the driver during the judging.

Shortly afterwards came the parade of horses, which started from the horse building, which went round the race track and back to the buildings.
The parade was led by a teaming stallion and the horse the exclamation of wonder from the grand stand at the size and beauty of the stock exhibited. Practically all the animals that won prizes took part in the parade, which was led by the winning hackney stallion owned by Mr. Bruce.
Great interest was exhibited in a well turned out team of greys hitched to a wagon owned by J. Y. Griffin, with two men in spotless white sitting in the driver's seat.

A horse that attracted a great deal of attention was the famous "Polar Star" which won first prize in the four year old Clydesdale class while close behind came Col. McQueen, owned by William Clarke, of Gleichen which won the first prize in the three-year-old Clydesdale class. The Mc-Queens are four in number: Master McQueen, Col. McQueen, Lillian Mc-Queen and Hattie McQueen, and were a fine sight in the parade, following selately one after the other.

After the stallions came the polo ponies and the saddle horses, the parade ending with some fine teams hitched to wagons, Jos. Rye and Sons being the chief exhibitors in this class.

When the racing was over the crowd crowded to see the daylight fireworks, which lasted about fifteen minutes.

Yesterday the question of feeding the hungry multitude was not such a difficult one as it was the day before, for the simple reason that the numbers were not so large, so that pretty soon the amusement street had a somewhat empty appearance and from all the dining halls and tents came the clatter of cups and plates.

Seven o'clock and the racing began again, with the attractions on the platform. The sky at this time began to assume a threatening appearance so that at eight-thirty it was thought advisable to begin the fireworks, so as to have them over, if possible before the rain came.

They were again quite the feature of the evening, rockets going high into the air leaving behind them a golden trail as they went and bursting into myriads of stars when they reached the top of their ascent. Long lines of light changing color every minute; chattering wheels in all colors; bombs, ending up with a quantity of rockets being sent up together, the lights coming from them when they burst illuminated the whole of the grounds.

Nine o'clock and the crowd began to make its way towards home, bringing to an end the third successful day at the fair.

The rationals are not content with trivial satisfactions nor the ardent with mere ease.

Close upon 50,000 Orangemen took part in the demonstration at Dublin on the 12th.
